TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[REPORTED FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

From Tennessee--Affairs in Nashville.

CHATTANOOGA, May 12.—Nothing stirring along the lines. Nashville dates to the 5th received. Etna from Liverpool had arrived at New York. The British authorities detained the Confederate gunboat Alexandria at Liverpool. The late proceedings of Admiral Wilkes relative to the Peterhoff affair caused increased irritation. The papers state that Napoleon is offended at the course of the Federals, and would recall Mercier. The rebel steamer Retribution captured a St. Domingo steamer. The steamboat Bard was sunk in the river above Nashville by the Confederates and passengers and crew captured. Thomas E Bramlett has been nominated as a candidate for Governor of Kentucky. Five thousand persons, mostly free negroes, have taken the oath at Nashville under orders. There was a raid by guirrillas in eight miles of Nashville on the 30th. The Federal pickets captured three cutters who had driven down two daughters of Rev. Mr. Elliott, of Nashville, who were arrested for carrying Southern letters and sent North. Nashville press says, Nashville must be Union or the population must be decimated. Fifteen prisoners from DeKalb, Smith and Wilson counties had arrived at Nashville and transportation North has been furnished by the authorities.

From Charleston—Activity of the Enemy--Run the Blockade, &c.

CHARLESTON, May 12.—The enemy is showing unusual activity. He has built large and formidable batteries on Folly Island, bearing upon the Southern extremity of Morris Island. Several Yankee regiments are also forming on Seabrook Island. Five iron-clads and numerous transports are still in North Edisto. Seventy transports remain at Port Royal. The steamer Brittain, with merchandise, has arrived through the blockade. She started from Nassau on Thursday in company with the steamer Norseman, which has not yet been heard from.—The steamer Pet, from Wilmington, had arrived in Nassau. The steamer Colliopso, Bansel and Antonica were also there and about to sail.

From Tennessee--Yankees Changing their Base, &c.

TULLAHOMA, May 12.—Scouts from the front to-day report the removal of the enemy's heavy baggage and tents near Nashville. The Daily Press of the 9th contains a telegram of the late Virginia battles. Loss of the Federals. Sedgwick's command alone, five thousand men. An editorial says Hooker having changed his base tells the story that he is defeated. Our first reports were base fabrications. The picture is frightful and adds to the chronology of our sanguinary defeats in the East. Reports of the rebel loss says from ten to fifteen thousand.

Sensational--Johnny Bull makes a Growl.

RICHMOND, May 13.—The Quebec Journal says news reached that city that fifteen regiments had been ordered from England in consequence of the American Ambassador having notified the English Government, that in case the iron-clads now building for the Chinese were allowed to depart, he would consider it equivalent to a declaration of war.

Canadian journals also say nine vessels had left England for Canada with arms, ammunition and military stores; six for Quebec and three for Montreal.

Gen. Bragg Reviewing the Troops.

TULLAHOMA, May 12.—General Bragg reviewed the Northern Alabama troops yesterday and addressed them briefly in a highly complimentary and spirited manner. Everything is encouraging in front and he ardently hoped they may meet the attack from the enemy. He leaves today to inspect the front. All quiet.

Andy Johnson and his Hopeful Bob—Negro Soldiers, &c.

CHATTANOOGA, May 11.—All quiet in front and no prospects of a battle. Andrew Johnson has been commissioned a Major General to organise a force of five thousand Tennesseeans and ten thousand negroes. One regiment of negroes had been organised, after which Williamson's cavalry were disbanded. Bob Johnson, son of Andy, has been promoted to a Brigadier. Ex-Governor Neal S. Brown, of Tennessee, has come through the lines from Nashville, and is now at Pulaski.

One day Later from the North--Yankee Rejoicing, &c.

RICHMOND, May 13.—The New York World of the 11th contains several fabulous reports including the capture of Richmond by Gen. Keyes, who had advanced from Yorktown, recrossing the Rappahannock by Hooker, and the destruction of the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad by the Yankee cavalry, all of which caused great excitement and joy in every city throughout the North. The World is barren of news.

Run the Blockade.

WILMINGTON, May 13.—Steamers Banshee and Pet arrived at this port this morning from Nassau.

THE FIGHT AT GRAND GULF.—The Mississippian of the 2nd May gives the following relative to the fighting at Grand Gulf:

Our intelligence up to this time (11, a. m.) from the conflict, is meager and unsatisfactory. Our latest reports, in the form only of current rumors, but understood to emanate from official sources, indicate the holding of the field of action by Gen. Bowen's forces, having succeeded by a daring charge in capturing Wade's Virginia Battery (which had been previously taken by the foe) and driving the enemy back for a mile.

This morning, it is reported from the same source of information, that our loss is heavy, including two Captains and one 1st Lieutenant of Missouri batteries. We presume the Missourians made the recapture of the Virginia battery, procured from the Richmond Works by the late Col. Wm. Wade, a point of honor. And the guns were retaken, but at a heavy cost of life. Reinforcements have been hurried forward to Gen. Bowen from different points, which must have reached Grand Gulf at least as early as last night. It has been a bloody engagement, as usual, with a small force on our side opposed to overwhelming numbers of the enemy.

It is painful in this connection, to remember that these very same troops of ours have, for twelve months past, had to encounter, on sundry fields, the best of the Federal army in double, or treble numbers, where our men, marching into the jaws of death, have enacted feats of valor almost without a parallel, and have failed to accomplish decisive results for want of timely support, or skilful combinations on the part of the head commanders. Such at Elkhorn—such at Corinth—and such, we fear, at Grand Gulf.

We await with no small anxiety the tardy arrival of more full and definite information. We have the utmost confidence in the final result of our conflict. This is the hour of storm and of trial; but Almighty God rules this storm, and holds our safety and our fortunes in his hands.

MISCELLANEOUS.

BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, I HAVE LEARNED WITH GREAT pain that there have been latterly numerous desertions from the ranks of our gallant army; and that there are many persons in the country who incite and encourage these desertions and harbor and conceal these misguided men at home, instead of encouraging them to return to duty:

Now therefore I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this my proclamation commanding all such evil disposed persons to desist from such base, cowardly and treasonable conduct, and warning them that they will subject themselves to indictment and punishment in the civil courts of the Confederacy as well as to the everlasting contempt and detestation of all good and honorable men.

Certainly no crime could be greater, no cowardice more abject, no treason more base, than for a citizen of the State, enjoying its privileges and protection without sharing its dangers, to persuade those who have had the courage to go forth in defense of their country, vilely to desert the colors which they have sworn to uphold, when a miserable death or a vile, skulking and ignominious existence must be the inevitable consequences: no plea can excuse it. The father or the brother who does it should be shot instead of his deluded victim, for he deliberately destroys the soul and manhood of his own flesh and blood. And the same is done by him who harbors and conceals the deserter. For who can respect either the one or the other? What honest man will ever wish or permit his own brave sons or patriotic daughters, who bore their parts with credit in this great struggle for independence, to associate, even to the third and fourths generations, with the vile wretch who skulked in the woods, or the still viler coward who aided him, while his bleeding country was calling in vain for his help? Both are enemies, sneaking, mean enemies to ther country, before whom our open foes will be infinitely preferred. Both are foes to their own kindred and noble countrymen who are electryfying the world by their gallant deeds, and pouring out their blood upon the field of battle to protect those very men who are sapping the vitals of our strength. And woe unto you, deserters, and your aiders and abettors, when peace being made and independence secured, these brave comrades whom ye have deserted in the hour of their trial shall return honored and triumphant to their homes! Ye that hide your guilty faces by day, and prowl like outlaws about by night, robbing the wife and mother of your noble defenders of their little means, while they are far away facing the enemy, do you think ye can escape a just and damning vengeance when the day of reckoning comes? And ye that shelter, conceal, and feed these miserable depredators and stimulate them to their infernal deeds, think you that ye will be spared? Nay! rest assured, observing and never failing eyes have marked you, every one. And when the overjoyed wife welcomes once more her brave and honorable husband to his home, and tells him how in the long years of his absence, in the lonely hours of the night, you who had been his comrades rudely entered her house, robbed her and her children of their bread and heaped insult and indignities upon her defenceless head, the wrath of that heroic husband will make you regret in the bitterness of your cowardly terror that you were ever born. Instead of a few scattered militia, the land will be full of veteran soldiers, before whose honest faces you will not have courage to raise your eyes from the earth. If permitted to live in the State at all you will be infamous. You will be hustled from the polls, kicked in the streets, an honest jury will not believe you on oath and honest men everywhere will shun you as a pestilence, for he who lacks courage and patriotism can have no other good quality or redeeming virtue. Though many of you rejected the pardon heretofore offered you, and I am not authorized to promise it, yet I am assured that no man will be shot who shall voluntarily return to duty. This is the only chance to redeem yourselves from the disgrace and ignominy which you are incurring.

Again our troops have met the enemy and a great and glorious victory has been won. But several thousand of our soldiers fell in achieving it for us. Every man is needed to replace the gallant dead, and preserve an unbroken front to our still powerful enemy. Unless desertion is prevented our strength must depart from our armies, and desertion can never be stopped while either through a false and mistaken sympathy or downright disloyalty, they receive any countenace or protection at home. I therefore appeal to all good citizens and true patriots in the State to assist my officers in arresting deserters, and to frown down all those who aid and assist them. Place the brand upon them and make them feel the scorn and contempt of an outraged people. Unless the good and the patriotic all over the land arise as one man to arrest this dangerous evil, it will grow until our army is well nigh ruined. The danger of starvation having happily passed away—the approaching and apparently bounteous harvest giving evidence of ample supplies for the coming year—our great army in Virginia again jubilant over a mighty victory—I am well assured that our danger now lies in the disorganization produced by desertion. You can arrest it my countrymen, if you will but make a vigorous effort, if you will but bring to bear the weight of a great, a patriotic and united community in aid of your authorities.

{L. S.} In witness whereof, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor, Captain General and Commander-in-Chief, hath signed these presents and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, (MILITIA,)
Raleigh, May 8th, 1863.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 4.

THE ATTENTION OF THE MILITIA OFFICERS is directed to the advertisement of Capt. Henry A. Dowd, Q. M., in regard to exchanging Cotton Yarn for Wool. The wool is needed for the purpose of furnishing our soldiers with clothing, and Militia Officers are requested to assist the State by urging patriotic citizens to make the exchange, and discountenancing all sales or exchanges with speculators.

Militia officers are ordered to seize all wool purchased for transportation beyond the limits of the State, contrary to the proclamation of the Governor.

Every agent of the State, for the purchase or exchange of wool, will receive an appointment under the great seal of the State, and Militia Officers are ordered to arrest all persons claiming to be agents of the State for this purpose who cannot produce such appointment, and have them bound over to the next Term of the Superior Court, to answer such charges as may be preferred against them.

By order of Governor VANCE:

DAN'L G. FOWLE,
Adjutant General.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

QUARTERMASTER'S DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, May 7th, 1863.

OWING TO THE LIMITED SUPPLY OF WOOL which the State has now at its command, and in view of the contingencies of obtaining any great amount from Texas, heretofore the principal market for her supplies, I take this opportunity of announcing to the patriotic men and women of the State, that I am making arrangements to exchange Cotton Yarns for Wool, and earnestly request that those who have wool will not dispose of it to any person, except he be an agent of the State, and acting under my directions.

There will be established Depositories for the Cotton Yarns, at points accessible to each County, making it convenient for those who wish to make the exchange, to do so with little trouble.

The object in procuring the well, is to clothe N. C. Troops; and it is the duty of every patriot to lend a helping hand in this cause; for while the State will strain every nerve to provide for your husbands, your brothers and your sons in the field, she yet relies upon the agency of those at home to assist her: and to do this, you must keep your wool from the hands of speculators, and exchange it with the State for Cotton Yarns.

Very respectfully yours,

H. A. DOWD,
A. Q. M. N. C. Army.

AUCTION AND PRIVATE SALES.

LAND FOR SALE.

I WILL SELL A SMALL FARM LYING TWO miles and a half from Weldon, N. C. It has a good dwelling with five rooms, three negro cabbins, smoke houses, two dairies, corn cribs and all the necessary out-houses. The farm contains two hundred acres, about half of which is cleared. There is enough low ground in cultivation to bring two hundred barrels of corn. There is also on the premises an elegant office. The farm adjoins the lands of Messrs. W. A. Daniel, F. J. Cheek and J. B. Zollicoffer and lies immediately on the road leading from Weldon to Gaston, and one and a half miles from the Roanoke river.

Any one wishing a pleasant residence in a good neighborhood can examine the premises, or address me at the 35th Regt. N. C. Troops, Kinston, N. C.

DESIRABLE INVESTMENT IN TEXAS LANDS.

ONE-HALF OF THE

JUSTO LIENIO TRACT.

THIS TRACT OF DESIRABLE LANDS WAS SELected for his home site many years since, by Col. M. B. Mehard, who was an extensive land owner in Texas, and one of the leading founders of the city of Galveston. The property has never passed out of his family, since its purchase by him, and one-half of it only is now offered for sale for a change of investment, and will be sold in parcels of one-fourth of a league, or 1,100 acres each.

It is situated in Milan county, within the

TEMPERATE AND SHOWERY BELT OF TEXAS,

about 45 miles North-Eastward from the Capital of the State, and about 55 miles Northwestwardly from Brenham, the present terminus of Railroad communication with Galveston and Houston.

The tract is divided in two nearly equal parts by Brushy Creek, (emptying into San Gabriel river,) and comprises an admirable combination of lands for agricultural and pastural pursuits. High and dry post oak lands, filled with fencing materials;

ROLLING PRAIRIE, WITH BEAUTILUL BUILDING SITES

commanding a view of the entire tract;

RICH TIMBERED BOTTOM

on both sides of the Creek, rising from there to a fine prairie covered with mesquite grass (not the bearded)

UNSURPASSED FOR GRAZING PURPOSES, and which extends uninteruptedly to the banks of the San Gabriel, from 12 to 15 miles distant.

This region of country is not surpassed by any in Texas, in

REGULARITY OF SEASONS,
DELIGHTFUL CLIMATE AND HEALTH OF THE LOCALITY;

and the tract itself forms one of the best investments for present use or future profit to be found in Texas,

THE LAND OF PROMISE AND OF PEACE.

During the dry year of 1860 in Texas, Mr. Conolly's farm, (on a portion of the tract,) yielded an average of 50 bushels of corn, and 15 bushels of wheat to the acre. There are numerous flouring mills in Milan, and the adjoining counties of Bell and Williamson.

All the small grains grow well, cotton yields one bale to the acre, horses, mules, sheep, hogs and

HORNED CATTLE THRIVE
WITHOUT WINTERING,

and are largely raised throughout the region. The titles to the land have never been questioned, and are unquestionable, and there are no squatters on it. The settled portion of the State extends far beyond Milan county, in every direction.

The property now belongs to J. S. Thrasher, Superintendant of the Press Association, and one-half of it is offered for sale, only because the acceptance of the duties of his public position involves the necessity of a partial change in his investments.

It is offered at private sale until the 7th day of August, when if not disposed of, it will be sold at public auction, without reserve, for cash, in Confederate Treasury notes in the city of Atlanta.

For further information, and plan of tract apply to

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1863.

There were various sensation rumors floating through the air late on Tuesday evening and again on yesterday, relative to another advance of Hooker. Some of the very sanguine and nervous asserted the report, put the cart before the horse, and had it that Gen. Lee was crossing over to look after the Falstaffian hero. The newspaper offices were besieged for a confirmation of these ridiculous rumors, and many susceptible persons even believed them, but as far as we are advised there is no foundation for them whatever.

The fact is a little common sense is a "good thing to have in the house," and he who does not manage to keep a little about must not complain at finding himself the victim of every wag that comes along.

Neither Lee or Hooker are in a condition to advance. If Hooker comes across again soon, of which we have not the remotest idea, we are confident that he will be again thrashed, but it is folly to try to conceal the fact that both armies were powerfully shattered in the recent struggle—too much so in fact for either to assume offensive operations again immediately; and it has only been given out at Washington that Hooker is to advance again at once, that the real extent of the disaster to the Yankee army may be concealed from the public as much as possible and to counteract that despondency which is sure to follow a defeat throughout the Northern States. We may be mistaken but our impression is that the Yankee army has made its last attempt to reach Richmond by the Fredericksburg route while Gen. Lee maintains his present position. And even should another advance be attempted from that direction, it cannot be undertaken for months to come, for as big fools as the Yankees are and as badly as they manage they will not attempt to march the broken, defeated, disheartened, demoralized fragments that now compose the "grand army of the Potomac" upon Gen. Lee's veterans so soon after their signal repulse.

Sensationists must look to some other quarter for exciting news for they will not get it from the Rappahannock.

Casualties in the Late Battles.

We give up a large portion of our space to-day to lists of killed and wounded in the North Carolina Regiments in the recent battles on the Rappahannock. Though the record is a sad one, we know the public will look for it with more interest than for anything else we can furnish them. All our troops stood up like Romans. There was no faltering, no lagging behind, but every North Carolina regiment performed its duty manfully, and we have heard it asserted on good authority that our own brave fellows would have suffered much less had certain Virginia brigades, whose business it was to support them, have stood up in the terrible charge on the enemy's entrenchments at Chancellorsville. The havoc has been appalling, but the proud reputation of our good old State has been maintained, and though we mourn for the slain and commiserate the sufferings of the mutilated, we have the pleasing consciousness of knowing that our own brave sons were among the foremost in every charge on those bloody fields. Before this struggle is over we hope that Virginia and "Carolina"—(the territory South of us)—will learn to realize the fact that there is life in the narrow strip of land lying between them.

We shall continue our list of killed and wounded just as fast as they can be obtained until the last of the sad tale is told.

Manly's Battery.

We copied a few days ago from the Richmond Enquirer a communication giving particulars of the late Fredericksburg battles, in which the following sentence appears:

"It is with sincere regret that I am unable to speak to the praise of all the artillery engaged, but I hear the first company of Richmond Howitzers and Maney's Battery highly commended for their effective and steady firing."

This should have been written Manly's Battery—the Ellis Light Artillery—commanded by Captain Basil C. Manly, and composed of young men from this city and county.

This company has seen some of the hottest and severest service of the war, from the fight at Williamsburg, around Richmond, Harper's Ferry and Fredericksburg, and Capt. Manly received from Major General McLaws, on the battle field, a letter of commendation for the efficient aid rendered him by his battery in enabling him to accomplish the brilliant success of his division in driving the Yankees across the Rappahannock.

It is but sheer justice to this company that the mite of praise and honor to which they are fairly entitled should not be suppressed or obscured by the carelessness or bad spelling of a newspaper correspondent.

We make the correction with pleasure.

Gov. Vance is ever mindful of the welfare of our heroic soldiers. We see it stated in a Richmond paper that Dr. Manson has prepared lodging, board and other accommodations in that city for North Carolina soldiers, by the order of Gov. Vance.

Col. J. S. McElroy, of the 16th, reported as mortally wounded, is doing well, and no serious fears are entertained for his recovery.

PROMOTED.—The Richmond Whig is pleased to learn that the able and intrepid young Brigadier Robert E. Rhodes, of Alabama, has been promoted to Major General, for gallantry and good conduct in the battle of Chancellorsville, and in recognition of his uniform skill and courage on every field. The promotion was worthily bestowed, because well merited.

LANE'S BRIGADE.

We publish below the casualties in Gen. Lane's Brigade in the battles of Chancellorsville, entire with the exception of the 7th Regiment, which we publish on yesterday. This Brigade is composed entirely of North Carolina Troops and the long list of killed and wounded shows how desperately they fought. While we mourn the dead, every son of our noble old State will feel proud that their common mother has furnished such a band of heroes:

ARMY CORRESPONDENCE.

CAMP SOUTHWEST BRIDGE, LENOIR CO., May 10, 1863.

Mr. EDITOR:—We have remained quiet and undisturbed all along the lines since my last. The Yankees have all fallen back and taken shelter in their old rat hole (Newbern) since their great defeat at Fredericksburg. "Fighting Joe," the great brag of universal Yankeedom has at last given our Lee an opportunity to wind up his military career for him, and right handsomely he has done it, and Yankee land is again in mourning. Richmond is free from threatened invasion, at least until a change of base is made. All citizens of Newbern loyal to the Confederate cause have been ordered by the Yankee General Foster to be removed beyond his lines, and on last Thursday, quite a number was sent by his orders as far as Core creek and dropped. Really they presented a sad spectacle; old age trembling on the verge of the grave, beautiful maidenhood and joyous innocence, were all promiscuously grouped together. No intelligence of their removal having been received by the citizens of Kinston, they were compelled to remain all night and a larger portion of the next day in an old field without shelter. As soon as their condition was known, transportation was procured for them and they were with the extremely limited amount of baggage allowed them by the Yankee authorities, removed safely to Kinston. They all tell of harrowing scenes enacted by the infernal Yankee vandals, and agree in saying that they grow every day more tyranical. During the last raid the Yankees rebuilt the bridge over Core creek and completed the railroad as far as the fist station on this side, being three miles on this side of the creek. The commanding officer having learned through our scouts that the Yankees were running their engine up as far as the creek, we were ordered on last Thursday to move down and destroy their works and burn the bridge, all of which was done without seeing anything of the Yankees, which convinced me that they had gone back to Newbern. I believe it was their intention to ditch their way to Kinston, and would really have undertaken it, had it not have been for the decided check received by their forces near Fredericksburg. A gentleman directly from Newbern informed me that a larger portion of the Yankee force were leaving Newbern, doubtless for Virginia. He stated also that Gen. Foster had moved his Headquarters to Shepherdsville, a movement that rather looks as though he intended paying a visit to Wilmington at no distant day, yet I doubt it. At all events I imagine our head officials are on the lookout and will give him a warm reception whenever he comes. Should anything of interest transpire along our lines you shall have it as soon as I can give a correct report.

HEADQUARTERS 62D GA. REGIMENT, Near Greenville, N. C., May 11, 1863.

MAJOR:—On the 2d day of May Serg't T. Mears, with a detachment of seven men of Capt. Barham's company (L) of my command, captured nine of Dodge's New York cavalry, with horses, arms, &c., at South Mills, Va., and brought them off.

On the — inst., Major John T. Kennedy, commanding cavalry near Washington, N. C., with a detachment of ten men, captured twenty-two negroes (renegades) in the face of the enemy.

On the 8th inst., Capt. T. G. Barhams, with a detachment of eight men, charged the enemy's pickets within five miles of Suffolk, Va., capturing six men and twenty-one horses. No casualties, except one horse wounded.

On the 10th inst., Captain P. Gray's pickets, on Tranter's creek, were charged by the enemy's cavalry. The enemy were repulsed and driven precipitately into Washington, as appears from Capt. Gray's report, herein enclosed.

I am, very respectfully, Major,
Your obedient servant,
JOEL R. GRIFFIN, Col. Comd'g Reg't.
Major ARCHER ANDERSON, A. A. G.

THE 2ND REGIMENT N. C. TROOPS.

We are yet without the casualties in the 2d, but all accounts concur in saying the regiment covered itself with glory. The parties to whom the following letters were addressed have kindly permitted us to use them:

BATTLE FIELD NEAR CHANCELLORSVILLE, May 4th, 1863.

——— ——— —Dear ———:—It becomes my duty to write you, to inform you that Col. Cox is wounded, though not seriously. I saw him on last evening and he was quite comfortable. He requested me to write as he had not means convenient. I deem it best to allay your fears and satisfy your mind, to give you a description of his wounds and my opinion of them as a physician and surgeon. His wounds are from a shell. First, he has a mere scratch on the forehead; second, he has a contused wound of the stomach—the skin is merely abraded, not lacerated. I regard this as the most serious wound that he has received. It may cause some little inflamation of the base of the lung, but I think not of a serious nature. Third, he has a slight wound in the leg, and fourth, he has lost to the first joint the third and small finger of his left hand. I will visit him as often as possible, and will write you if he is too unwell to do so, which I do not anticipate.

Since I wrote the above, I have been to see the Colonel. He is doing very well. He will leave for home as soon as he can get means of conveyance. Gen. Ramseur states that he has telegraphed for [illegible] or send some one else for him.

We have had a terrible battle—about [illegible] the Colonel's regiment has been killed [illegible] The regiment behaved nobly and gallant[illegible] to themselves. Out of about twenty-five [illegible] the Colonel's regiment nineteen are [illegible] of them mortally. We are momentarily [illegible] renewal of the fight. We have driven the [illegible] fore us and inflicted great loss on him, [illegible] suffered greatly. Gen. Jackson has [illegible] Gen. A. P. Hill is slightly wounded. Gen. [illegible] was killed, and two or three of our [illegible] wounded.

Yours, &c.,

ON THE BATTLE-FIELD OF S[illegible]

May 3d 1[illegible]

K. P. BATTLE, Esq.—Dear Sir: We [illegible] fighting all day and our loss is very [illegible] brigade. I write to tell you that Col. [illegible] ed in three places, but not dangerously. [illegible] by Col. Cox, covered itself with glory, and [illegible] brigade was complimented by the Maj. [illegible] the General also. Col. Grimes was wounded [illegible] big toe, painful but nothing else. John [illegible] wounded in the thigh; Capt. Gales is [illegible] Jones of the 14th, also Lt. Beavers, but [illegible] say Lt. Hardie of the 14th is killed, as [illegible] many of the Raleigh Company. Lt. Lea[illegible] sion of the arm, this is all I can learn [illegible] have about five hundred wounded in our [illegible] Gen. Ramsuer among them in the fight [illegible] not leave the field. You must excuse [illegible] haste by moonlight on my knees.

Please let the parties know about those [illegible] tioned.

Yours truly,

Let my mother know I am well; [illegible] fight at Richmond was nothing to the [illegible] fight like tigers.

*Lt. Miller was mistaken as to Lt. Ha[illegible] not even wounded.

DIED,

In the city of Richmond, on Sunday, the [illegible] of wounds received the previous Sunday in the Chancellorsville, IVES, a son of the Rev. B[illegible] aged twenty years and two months.

He was Adjutant of the 7th N. C. Regiment, [illegible]ful soldier of Christ in his life, a faithful [illegible] country in his death, we trust he now awaits [illegible]ful mansions of the blessed, the crown of glo[illegible] Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give him in [illegible]

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

AT A MEETING

OF THE CITIZENS OF THE DISTRICT [illegible]ed of the counties of Granville, Warren [illegible]lin, held agreeable to notice at Hend[illegible] 11th, 1863, Colonel S. S. Royster was called [illegible] and T. L. Brodie was appointed Secretary. The the meeting being explained by J. B. White, [illegible] A. Q. M., C. S. A., the following prices [illegible] should govern the sales and impressments of [illegible] army supplies, viz:

Corn unshelled $15 per barrel.
Corn shelled and bagged $3 10 per bushel [illegible] nished by Government.
Fodder unbaled $2 50 per cwt.
Shucks unbaled $1 75 per cwt.
Sheaf Oats unbaled $2 per cwt.
Straw unbaled 50 cents per cwt.

The Quartermaster was further instructed to [illegible] lowing quantities of corn should be left for the [illegible] each family and plantation: For each horse and [illegible] the months of May, June and July, one barrel; [illegible] each horse and mule for the months of August, [illegible] ber and October, half barrel corn; for each [illegible] family until the 1st of November, half peck; [illegible] for each hog until 1st November, one peck per [illegible] month.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Daily Progress and Weekly Journal of the city of Raleigh, and the Daily Enquirer of the city of Richmond, Va. S. S. ROYSTER, Pres't.

T. L. BRODIE, Secretary.

ASSISTANT QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE, Henderson, N. C., May 11, 1863.

To the Citizens of Granville, Franklin and Warren.

The necessities of the army are such as require the immediate delivery of every bushel of surplus corn and pound of long forage in this District, and I would urge upon you the fact that to subsist our army you must furnish the supplies at once. If this is done it will precede the necessity of my having to exercise the power of impressment, which would be disagreeable to me and creditable to you, but my instructions are positive and will be executed.

Very respectfully, J. B. WHITE, Captain and A. Q. M.
